MEXICAN PLOT LAIN IN PARIS

Carranza Warned of Secret Preliminaries—Refused To Heed.

WORKED NEAR EMBASSY

Followers of Former Rulers Mentioned Principally As Leaders.

Paris, May 8.—The statement that the preliminary plot for the present Mexican revolution was hatched in Paris, was made today by a high official of the Mexican Embassy here, who added that the whole secret plan was known in advance by President Carranza.

The Mexican President, however, it is asserted, refused to heed the urgent warnings of his ambassador to France, Senor Pani, that the whole of Mexico would flare into revolt as soon as the presidential campaign opened.

The following are mentioned as being chiefly concerned in the alleged plot: Francisco Iturbe, millionaire banker of Gen. Angeles, who joined the Villa Junta here immediately after hearing the news of the general's execution in Chihuahua. Jose Diaz, Mexican rubber king, cousin of Porfirio Diaz, whose estates in Yucatan and Tehuantepec were confiscated by Carranza. Ramon Garcia, who acted as adviser to the late Victoriano Huerta. Jesus Yencio Miramans, millionaire Cientifico, who escaped from Mexico following the Madero revolution and has been living since in a palace in the avenue du Bois de Boulogne.

Song Writer Among Leaders. Juan Estrada, Mexican song writer, who attained considerable success with his operettas in Madrid, where he is making his home.

Hirado Cabrera, who was a colonel under Madero, and fled to France after the Madero revolution, a distinguished member of the foreign legion. It is further alleged that J. Y. Limantour, minister of finance in the Diaz regime, is also concerned in the plot, but Senor Limantour emphatically denies this, stating he had refused to enter into any conspiracy, despite his hatred of Carranza, because he felt he was too old, and was unwilling to concern himself further with Mexico's troubles.

Francisco de la Barra, former president of Mexico, though not denying knowledge of the plot, said tonight he had no details of it and had never been asked to join the alleged conspirators.

The Villa Junta met, it is said, in a lavishly furnished apartment near the Eiffel Tower, a stone's throw from the residence of Ambassador Pani, who remained in ignorance of the plot until the Junta approached Candido Aguilar, Carranza's foreign minister, while he was visiting Europe.

Remained Loyal To Carranza. Aguilar, it is authoritatively reported, refused to join the plotters, stating he was and would remain loyal to Carranza. It is he who is said to have informed the Mexican Embassy, which, in turn, promptly acquainted Carranza with the facts. The Mexican President refused to let them worry him.

When word got abroad that the plot had been discovered, Iturbe, Miramans, and Garcia left Paris, presumably for Spain.

Jose Diaz is going to London, where he now is the head of the English branch of the revolutionary party, the object of which according to his informant, is to replace the Cientificos and restore the iron reign that was held by Porfirio Diaz.

YANKS SENDING ORPHANS HOME

Officer Requests Deportation of French Boy He Planned to Adopt.

Fifty per cent of the French orphans adopted by American soldiers in France are being sent back. This statement came yesterday from Supt. Baker of Ellis Island, N. Y., when a former Washington newspaper man, Lieut. Howell Price French, and his wife, requested the deportation of a 16-year-old French lad they had planned to adopt.

The boy, Georges Perot, came to this country as a stowaway in search of his father, an officer who had befriended him in France last January. Lieut. French and his wife happened to be in New York at the time, and when they saw in the newspapers of the arrival of Georges they said they would adopt him. Several Congressmen aided the couple in securing the boy's release for twelve months on a $500 bond that he would not become a public charge.

No explanation was given of why Lieut. French and his wife wished their charge deported.

Gypsy Supper Feature Of School Entertainment

Warrenton, Va., May 8.—A pageant and open air play will be given near Foxcroft School, Middleburg, Va., May 14, under the auspices of the school and of the Fauquier-Loudoun Garden Club. The play is a romance of the days of Queen Elizabeth, and is called "Romany and Royalty." A gypsy supper in the woods will follow.

Elevator Shaft in Cliff. Visitors to Yosemite Valley soon will no longer need to stay on the valley floor, but may shoot in an elevator up through 3,000 feet of solid granite to Glacier Point, according to the director of national parks. A risky line of steps cut in the cliff has been the only direct approach, yet Glacier Point gives a magnificent view of the Yosemite Valley.

LIFE SAVINGS GONE, MAN TRIES SUICIDE

(By Herald Licensed Wire.)

New York, May 8.—A pathetic story was revealed in the Essex Market Court today when Samuel Jacobson, 33, a clerk of Brooklyn, was arraigned on a charge of disorderly conduct. According to Police Officer Wang, who arrested Jacobson, the prisoner attempted to jump from a subway platform. Jacobson told the court he had saved $750 in fifteen years with which he hoped to sail for Europe. He said he had entrusted two men with the money to purchase his steamship ticket, and after he had left a soda store with them he became unconscious. When he awoke his money was gone, and he attributed his suicide attempt to the disappearance of his life's savings. After hearing the evidence Magistrate Ten Eyck discharged Jacobson.

BILL PROVIDES MOTHERS' AID

Rep. Tinkham Wants U. S. To Help Support Dependent Children.

Allowances for mothers in the District with children under 16 years of age, who are dependent upon them for support, is provided in a bill introduced by Representative Tinkham, of Massachusetts. The measure makes no appropriation, but authorizes the Board of Children's Guardians, under regulation of the District Commissioners, to grant mothers sufficient aid to enable them to care for their children in their own home. Tinkham has introduced this

Emma Goldman, in Russia, Pines for "Good Old U. S."

Chicago, May 8.—The "dear old U. S. A." is much preferred to "free Russia," according to Emma Goldman, deported anarchist. A letter to Ben L. Reisman, ex-anarchist, from Miss Goldman says she found Russia different from what she had expected. "I miss America," she wrote. "It is very difficult to acclimate oneself in a new country and Russia is not a place where one may hope to take rest easily." Miss Goldman was deported on the "Soviet Ark," Buford.

Measure in other Congresses without it getting out of committee. Its prospects are favorable this year because of the interest in humanitarian legislation and the fact that such legislation has been passed by a number of States, he said. The Tinkham bill was referred to the District Committee.

Rockville, Md.

Rockville, Md., May 8.—Funeral services for Erasmus W. Jones, who died Wednesday at his home near Travilah, took place yesterday morning from St. Mary's Catholic Church here, the Rev. John T. Coolahan officiating. Burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery. Mrs. A. Dawson Trindle, of Dawsonville, has been appointed by Governor Ritchie a member of the county board of education to succeed Charles T. Johnson, whose term expired May 1. Mrs. Trindle was endorsed by the Montgomery County Federation of Women's Clubs and her appointment was the culmination of a long fight by club women of the county to have one of their number a member of the school board. (Governor Ritchie has re-appointed Dr. James E. Deets, of Clarkburg, a member of the board. A license has been issued by the clerk of the circuit court here for the marriage of Miss Lenora M. Farley, of Richmond, Va., and Herbert Cooke, of Washington.
